JUDGE GRANTS NEW TRIAL ON TIMES' PIECE

An article published in The Gettysburg Times concerning the report of a board of view led Judge Dale F. Shughart Monday afternoon to grant a new trial in the appeal of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the findings of the board on damages to the property of Kent E. and Dorilyn S. Golden, York Springs R. D.

Judge Shughart ruled that when The Times on October 12 printed "A jury was drawn at 11 o'clock this morning in the appeal of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the $16,000 award made by a board of viewers to Kent E. and Dorilyn S. Golden, York Springs R. D., for damages to their property caused by the relocation of roads for the York Springs bypass..." the article may have prejudiced the jury.

"Influence Verdict"
Judge Shughart's said, in his seven page opinion, "Under all the circumstances we are in grave doubt as to whether or not the article did influence the verdict and we feel, therefore, that in the interest of justice a new trial must be granted."

The jurist said that, in the Golden trial, "there would be sufficient testimony to support the verdict (of the jury) aside from any effect that the newspaper article may have had. Such, however, is not enough."

The opinion ruled that before the jury began hearing the testimony on October 13 one of the jurors was excused by agreement of counsel, having been found to be related to one of the Golden.

LIMIT PARKING ON N. STRATTON AND N. FOURTH

Ordinances prohibiting parking on the east side of Fourth St. from York St. to the railroad and on the west side of N. Stratton St. from York St. to E. Lincoln Ave. were approved by borough council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house.

The vote on the parking ban on N. Stratton St. passed 8 to 1. Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell voted against it. The Fourth St. vote was unanimous.

Borough Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert was exonerated of approximately $800 in taxes, much of which represented duplications. He said he will be "forced to place about $75 worth of liens on property," in a letter to council, and promised that he would bring wage attachments against a number of persons who have not paid their occupation taxes "if I can catch them working."

Await Tax Decision
Councilman Jack Thrusch reported plans for codification of the borough's laws have reached a point where "I think I can make a recommendation next month."

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank asked: "What is the status of taxis on Lincoln Square? The time is coming up for renewal of their licenses and I need to know." Councilman George Naugle said council is still awaiting a recommendation by the planning commission concerning whether the taxis should be removed from their Lincoln Square stalls to the bus terminal "so we'll have all our transportation at one spot."

The burgess also asked that the signs "ten minutes parking" at the post office on E. High St. be changed to read "except Sundays."

Snow Shoveling Problem
The burgess reported, "George Olinger and Mrs. Stanton have given approval for removal of trees at their properties which the shade tree commission has recommended be removed because of hazards to autos. Frank Rosensteel has asked that council reserve decision on the tree at his place on W. High St. until next month so he can appear in council to discuss it."

Approval was given for borough workmen to clean the alley and walkway at the engine house because Janitor Donald Jacob's duty of handling the "quick-call" radio system prevents his leaving the engine house.

The burgess was instructed to confer with Postmaster Jacob G. Appier and the county commissioners concerning snow removal from the large sidewalks in front of the post office and the courthouse. Borough Engineer LeRoy Winebrenner said janitors at both places shoveled large quantities of snow into the street after the

MOST BOROUGH EMPLOYEES TO GET INCREASE IN THEIR PAY

Many Gettysburg borough employees will get a pay raise March 16 as a result of action taken by the borough council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house.

Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner and Chief of Police Jack Bartlett had their pay raised from $4,000 a year to $4,300.

The pay for the highway department foreman was increased from $3,340 to $3,650.

Pay raises were given the full time policemen — from $3,300 to $3,600.

Other Increases

Special police, who were paid $1.10 an hour, will receive $1.20 an hour.

Street laborers will get $1.30 an hour instead of $1.20. When they drive trucks they will receive $1.40 per hour, ten cents more per hour than they received before. When they handle "heavy equipment," the pay scale goes to $1.50 an hour, another ten-cent increase above the former rate.

Engine House Custodian Donald Jacobs was raised from $3,100 per year to $3,300. Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit was raised from $800 to $1,000.

Plan Police Pay Scale

There were no increases for the treasurer and secretary of council.

Council also decided to set up a pay scale for policemen next month, with a beginning salary, increments and a top salary in order to permit the Civil Service Commission to hold an examination for policemen.

Council accepted the bid of James Stock, New Oxford type-175.25. Other bidders ranged up to writer salesman, to furnish a new typewriter to the borough for

BECKON Is Meat From Pig Not Summons, Says Solon

COUNCIL WILL CHECK TOWN'S STREETS APR. 2

Saturday, April 2, at 2 p.m. was set as the time for the annual inspection of the borough streets and sidewalks by council at the meeting of borough council in the engine house Monday night.

Discussion showed council is planning to extend W. Broadway to Constitution Ave. and Constitution Ave. to W. Lincoln Ave. as part of its street work this year. Development in the college area has reached the point where "it is necessary to get those streets in so people will know where to build," Councilman Philip M. Jones said.

Discussion indicated that the borough line is approximately 180 feet north of the proposed extension of Constitution Ave. The information was given in reply to a question by Councilman Jones concerning "a proposed extension of Constitution Ave. to the Mummaburg Rd. I don't know anything about it, except I heard some talk about it," Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit said that any extension of Constitution Ave. to Mummaburg Rd. would "be up to the township."

Freight Station Road Up

Councilmen were asked to make a prior inspection in their own wards to help when the general inspection was made and those unable to take part in the trip were asked to submit their findings in writing.

Highway Committee Chairman Mahlon P. Hartzell said: "We can take care of extending Broadway and Constitution Ave., but I can't find any records on the road to the Reading Freight station from Washington St." Hartzell said he is opposed to paving the road because it would involve building a new bridge over the Tiber. Councilman Glenn Guise said: "I'll tell you what to do about that after the meeting."

There have been reports that council is planning to extend Constitution Ave. to N. Washington St. past the Reading Railroad freight terminal. No indication of such plans has been given at council meetings other than Hartzell's remark.

New Parking Plan

Burgess Wilbur Plank told council: "On July 6, 1959, I asked a council recommendation concerning loading and unloading zones to help solve the problem of the store owners. We can't go on as it is. Because the store owners must have some way to get up-

Dr. Richardson On TV Wednesday

Dr. Norman E. Richardson Jr., professor of philosophy at Gettysburg College, will speak on the Oxford University type of linguistic philosophy Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock on the "College Of The Air" telecast over WGAL-TV, Channel 8.

The contemporary Oxford philosophy is an attempt to answer the contention that philosophy is only a handmaiden of science. It is still answering the question of meaning in different areas, he said.

Dr. Richardson spent a sabbatical leave the first semester of the current academic year in study and research at England's Oxford University.

"Men And Issues In The Twentieth Century" is the theme of Gettysburg College's current weekly participation in the educational series.

TREES, ZONING ARE PONDERED BY COUNCIL

Trees in Lincoln Square and zoning occupied Gettysburg borough council for some time at its meeting Monday night. The discussion showed council divided on both questions. Both were postponed for later consideration.

Forrest Craver, chairman of the Shade Tree Commission, presented a plan drawn to plant four 14 foot high pin oaks in the four quadrants of Lincoln Square, and other trees in the four first blocks radiating from the Square.

According to the request of the Commission, the four trees in the quadrants would be planted by March 25 and the other trees would be planted in succeeding years. The cost was estimated by the commission at about $900. It asked that the trees be placed ten feet from the curb in the center of each quadrant.

Favors More Trees

Councilman Philip M. Jones opposed the planting of four trees, declaring that if the town wants trees it should plant more than four in the square in order to restore the "old time" atmosphere. Councilwoman Mrs. James Schwenk, in reply to objections that trees would interfere with people getting in and out of cars, said, "Street signs, utility poles, light standards and advertising signs all prevent people from getting out of cars. If I'm going to be stopped from getting out of my car I'd rather be stopped by a tree than by a pole."

Council President Glenn Guise appointed Councilmen Jones, Richard Smith and Clyde DeHaas to meet with the shade tree commission to discuss the proposal and report back with a recommendation.

Burgess Is Upset

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank brought up the question of zoning. He said he was "upset" by the decision of council last month to relieve the planning and zoning commission of the duties of zoning. He asked council to set up a "separate zoning commission" if the planning commission doesn't want to do it.

Guise said, "It's too late for zoning," and added, "In all our new developments we have zoning in effect through restriction."

4 White Youths Beat Negro With Chains, Carve KKKs On Body, Hang Him By His Heels

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Four masked white youths hung a Negro man from a tree by his heels Monday night and scratched two series of KKKs into his chest and stomach after beating him with chains, the Negro told police.

Felton Turner, 27, said he freed himself from ropes around his ankles and wrists staggered to a nightwatchman's shack and telephoned police.

A doctor at Jefferson Davis Hospital said Turner was treated and released this morning.

The six Ks ranged from 1½ inches to 3 inches in length and went from Turner's chest to his stomach, the doctor said. Rope marks were on the Negro's wrists and ankles.

Seized By Youths

Police said Turner told them he was walking near his home in a Negro residential area at 10:15 p.m. when two masked white youths leaped from a car and grabbed him. They carried guns

Fairfield Council Discusses Budget

The proposed 1960 budget was considered by Fairfield Burgess Kenneth W. Sanders and six councilmen at the regular monthly meeting of the town council Monday evening.

Included in the budget was $1,347.51 for construction, $600 for maintenance and $75 snow removal under construction and maintenance of streets and alleys.

Bills totaling $300.06, including $72 for snow removal, were read and approved and revenue of $150 for a liquor license was reported. It was also reported that a Fairfield Lions Club project inaugurated several months ago is near completion. The Lions plan to erect street signs throughout the town. Thomas L. Newman, council president, presided over the meeting.

Aimed At 1963

The ordinance provides for the burgess to inspect the premises where all such public events are held and authorizes the burgess to withhold a permit if the premises are not held to be safe. The law also provides that no license can be issued unless all taxes, utility bills, etc., are paid and provides that the license can be withdrawn if taxes, water or sewer bills are in arrears. The fine is $50 and costs or 10 days in jail for each day of operation without a license.

Mrs. James Schwenk, councilwoman from the Third Ward, asked, "What's the purpose of this ordinance?"

Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit said its purpose is to "protect the public and borough against improper amusements and also to raise funds." Council President Glenn Guise said the law is designed to "control all the things that may come here in 1963."

In response to questions, the borough solicitor agreed that the new law would impose the permit-tax on Gettysburg Symphony concerts, the Gettysburg Community concerts, high school and college plays and operettas for which admission is charged. He said that regularly scheduled sports activities would not be considered entertainment and would not be subject to the permits, but said that if some famous team came here for an exhibition it would be subject to the permits.

Monthly Expenses

The report showed $1,105.78 spent during the month for general government, $2,708.18 for protection to persons and property, $3,883.38 for highways, $163.24 for lights and $48.08 for recreation.

During the first two months of the year the town spent $2,712.71 for general government, $7,048.99 for protection to persons and property, $7,725.95 for highways, $236.80 for miscellaneous purposes, $990.76 for electricity and $1,412.33 for recreation.

Purchase of a 90-day U. S. Treasury bill for $24,749.75 was also noted. Council voted last

William H. Dixon, Littlestown, to the Adams Electric Cooperative, Inc., a lot in Germany Twp., $1,500.

The School District of Union Twp., to Edward B. and Kathryn K. Geiman, Union Twp., a strip of land in Union Twp., $100.

Gettysburg Borough Council at its March meeting in the engine house Monday evening formally adopted a $169,000 budget for the coming year and set the millage rate at 16 mills, the same as last year.

Council quickly adopted a $2 per month tax on occupied house trailers and a graduated amusement tax starting with one cent on admissions up to 34 cents, two cents on 64 cents, on up to 5 cents on admissions over 95 cents. The tax applies to museums as well as the theater.

Council adopted on first reading an ordinance providing a $10 per year license fee for all types of public entertainments, including theatrical productions, dances, operas, museum presentations, swimming pools "and all forms of entertainment." Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit said the ordinance did not apply to sports.

The ordinance provides for the burgess to inspect the premises where all such public events are held and authorizes the burgess to withhold a permit if the premises are not held to be safe. The law also provides that no license can be issued unless all taxes, utility bills, etc., are paid and provides that the license can be withdrawn if taxes, water or sewer bills are in arrears. NUCLEAR WAR UNLIKELY SAYS NAVY OFFICER

"All-out nuclear war seems unlikely but local wars and the cold war will likely be with us for the rest of our lives and those of our children," Commander Dwight Morgan, Anacostia Naval Air Base, told members of the local Lions Club Monday evening at the Shelter House.

The liaison, recruiting and information officer in an illustrated talk on the importance of the Navy in the nation's defense stressed the importance of "balance" in defense. "It is most important to have the right amount and the right kind of defense at the right place at the right time without spending so much for defense that we will suffer economic defeat," he said. The versatility and mobility of the Navy's weapons for defense were pointed up by the speaker who described the "ocean highways" as the "arteries of freedom." He warned of the great gains in population and territory made by communism since World War II and said 33 per cent of the world's population is under the Red yoke.

Moving Targets Tougher

The Reds, who advocate peace but practice military domination, now control half of the world's real estate, said the speaker who is a decorated veteran of World War II duty as a Navy pilot in the Pacific.

Noting that "bases with fixed addresses furnish much better targets," he said.

DR. G. W. WEBER TELLS COLLEGE OF CORRUPTION

"There is still time for a college student, because of his youthfulness and flexibility, not to be caught up in the pressures of conformity which appear from all sides. These come from those who are closest to us and whom we regard highly—our parents, our teachers, and our peers.

"However, it is against these very persons that we must struggle if we would change our society and solve some of the complex problems which face us."

Dr. Gustave W. Weber, president of Susquehanna University, declared this morning in an address at Gettysburg College.

"All societies are deplorable, and history indicates that they always will be. You have lived twenty years in a deplorable society. You have lived sheltered lives, but you have had no one to shelter you from your parents and teachers," the university president declared.

"Criminal Negligence"

"Your parents have done what they could to do just to you to the deplorable society, to which they, as their advanced age testifies, have successfully adjusted themselves. When they said they hoped you would keep out of trouble, they meant that you should not do anything that they wouldn't do. But some of the things that they wouldn't do should have been (Continued On Page 3)

CD DIRECTOR TELLS ROTARY ABOUT SETUP

Adams County's Civil Defense organization was outlined Monday evening by CD Director William G. Weaver at a meeting of Rotary at the YWCA.

He described the use of the fire companies as a basis for organization and said there are more than 50 pieces of fire equipment in the county "tied together by radio" for use in case of emergency. He added that 15 pieces of fire apparatus could be dispatched to other counties if needed "and we would still have coverage in the county."

State CD headquarters does not consider Adams County a critical area for enemy attack despite the Presidential farm and the "Little Pentagon," Weaver said. "They believe Adams County would be available for help to other sections in case of attack and would be used for handling refugees." He described plans to use churches and schools, if needed, to house refugees and said medicine sufficient for 1,000 persons is stored in the county.

Cecil Ledard and Roger Myers, the two assistant county CD directors, were introduced and a film of Civil Defense work in England was shown.

Fifty-four attended. President John MacPhail presided. Paul Steiner was introduced as the new student Rotarian. Eric Ruckelshaus, of the Boyer Wood Products Co., was introduced as a new member. Dr. Harold Dunkelberger and Dr. Kenneth Smoke were in charge of group singing.

Says More Leaders Needed By Scouts

A need for more leaders for Boy Scout activities was outlined Monday evening by Stanley C. Rogers, Scout field executive, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Lamp Post Tea Room. Rogers said that the Black Walnut Boy Scout District now has 822 boy members but could "greatly increase" boy membership if sufficient adult leaders can be secured.

He described the activities of the Boy Scouts and Explorers and said the district stands ready to provide instruction for any organization or group which wishes to sponsor a new Scout unit. He said "the first step for any sponsoring group is to secure the leaders. When the leaders are trained, the boys can be secured without trouble, for there are innumerable boys anxious for an opportunity to take an active part in Scouting." Rogers also showed a film on Boy Scouting.

President William Ditzler presided. A meeting of the board of directors followed the regular club session.

Let Contract For New School Bus

The contract for a new school bus for the Upper Adams School District has been awarded to Peterman Pontiac, Hanover. The Peterman bid was selected by the school board Monday evening in the elementary school from 23 others.

The cost of the bus, due to go into service in September, is $10,100. It was described by D. C. Houck, business manager, Upper Adams School District, as a 73-passenger GMC bus with an Onelida body. The motor is in the rear and the bus is of the "snub-nose" style. Houck said the contract is expected to be completed sometime next week.

SAYS PASTORS SHOULD DEAL WITH ISSUES

"Preaching today must deal more adequately with relevant issues," the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, local Presbyterian pastor, told members of the Adams County Ministerium at their March meeting at Flohr's Lutheran Church, near McKnightstown, Monday morning.

The local pastor was in charge of the program on "The Pastor as a Preacher." The ministerium president, the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church here, presided over the business session and the opening devotions were conducted by the host pastor, the Rev. Henry Early.

The Rev. Mr. MacAskill outlined the history of preaching through the Old and New Testaments and up to the present and then said: "Preaching should be based more solidly on the intelligent interpretation of scripture." Calling for more strength in "sermon construction," the pastor declared, "Preaching is an art and should be handled and understood in that way by pastors."

Pointing out that preaching basically is a "matter of communication," he said, great attention should be given to effective delivery. He used as his text Paul's words in the 10th chapter of the epistle to the Romans: "And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, how beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace and bring glad tidings of good things."

During the business session, Dr. Reaser discussed the relationship of the ministerium with the Adams County Council of Churches. Copies of the new directory of county services were distributed by the Adams County Council of Community Services.

8 Are Killed When Train Hits Vehicle

BERLIN, Conn. (AP)—Eight persons were killed today when a passenger train collided with a station wagon.

The train hurled the station wagon, loaded with seven children and a woman, into a five-foot-deep lake beside the unprotected grade crossing on quiet Norton Lane.

Police reports first said three persons were dead and five unaccounted for. A few minutes later the New Haven Railroad reported that eight persons had been killed, all occupants of the automobile.

Apparently the children were being driven to school when the New Haven Railroad's train No. 97, bound from Springfield, Mass., to New York, crashed into the station wagon.

The accident occurred at 8:33 a.m. at the border of Silver Lake, a body of water in the area of the Meriden-Berlin border.

The dead were not identified immediately. None of the train passengers was reported hurt.

State police immediately issued an emergency call for all of its skin divers to come to the scene to try to pull bodies from the submerged station wagon.

done. The condition of the society to which they have accommodated their lives is the proof of their criminal negligence," Dr. Weber told his Gettysburg College audience in his talk titled "The Inevitable Corruption."

"What you need is what the Psalmist knew he needed—a heart, not a head, of wisdom. I do not know where you will get it. If I did I would get it myself. You were divinely endowed to know right and to do right, and you have before you, in the tradition of your country and of human history, the vision to help you if you will turn to it. But no one will compel you to turn to it, and no one can. The dictates of your society, of any society will not serve you. They are the dictates that corrupted your parents and aid your teachers and me," Dr. Weber concluded.

MOST BOROUGH

Council approved payment of $168.75 for purchase of tires for a borough truck, and approved purchase of a new blade for the snow plow.

Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell asked council to set a rate for use of the snow plow. He said: "People came to use on their knees to dig them out of the snow and since our man had nothing else to do at the time we told him to go ahead. It took two hours." Council set $8 an hour as the price for the snow plow use, with the time beginning when the truck-plo leaves the borough shed and ending when it returns.

Feeling the price was low, but not knowing how to make it high enough, council expressed the hope that it would not get too many calls for snow plow service and made it clear that the plow could be used only when it is "absolutely not needed for anything in the borough work."

Minor miscellaneous amounts.

ject to the tax.

Called "Unfortunate"

Council President Guise observed: "In providing for control of what might come in, we have to unfortunately control everything else."

The new budget adopted Monday night calls for $48,000 for highways, $33,000 for safety, $16,500 for finance, $1,000 for health, $14,000 for recreation, $12,000 for utilities and $15,000 for a new street sweeper and police car.

It also provides $9,500 for "miscellaneous," compared to $5,663.58 spent for miscellaneous purposes last year. There was no breakdown of the $9,500 given at the February meeting to indicate why there should be an increase in that department.

No Breakdown Given

Nor was any breakdown given Monday evening to show what items in the miscellaneous budget were increased, or what might have been added, to increase that part of the budget by $3,900.

Councilman John Welsch Monday night said: "The principal increase is in the recreation budget, it's up $3,000," when other councilmen queried him. He did not indicate any increase in the miscellaneous budget.

Last year the miscellaneous expenditures included $3,728 foreign fire insurance tax refund which was turned over, according to law, to the firemen's relief fund, the only use that may be made of the amount paid by the state to the town; $1,000 to the county library, $45 for flowers and other minor miscellaneous amounts.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

First Auto Run Coming In May: The first automobile run of the season to come through Gettysburg is that of the Motor Club of Harrisburg. The dates fixed are May 9 to 14. Indications are that this run will be the most successful in the history of the club.

March Storm: The first thunderstorm of 1960 passed over Gettysburg and the county about ten o'clock Sunday night when a storm of unusual severity visited this part of the country. The lightning was unusually vivid and the thunder very heavy. The storm broke with little warning and passed rapidly but while it lasted was one of the old-fashioned mid-summer variety.

Stole Ice Cream: The food sale and ice cream social held at the home of Miss Mary Myers on Saturday evening was a success financially and a pleasant affair. Some one toward the close, however, wanted ice cream without paying for it and slipped a freezer from the yard. Mr. Ridinger and Mr. Wallick searched the alleys near and on Sunday morning Mr. Wallick discovered the missing freezer, minus ice cream, in rear of post office, whither, it is supposed, some boys who were seen loitering around, had taken, and enjoyed the stolen sweets.

Scores of Gettysburg people visited the new Pennsylvania Monument on Sunday, the day being an ideal one for walking. Two of the arches have been placed and the memorial has made rapid progress during the past week.

Much Sickness In The County: The mumps and pink eye victims who have been suffering in town for some time past may now have the consolation that there are many others afflicted with the same uncomfortable ailments. From some sections of the county large numbers of cases of these two diseases are reported while whooping cough seems to be causing considerable trouble.

Biglerville Has Busy Time: Biglerville is preparing for annual busy Spring boom season and the place will have its usual activities during the next few months. One of the most notable improvements to the town will be the erection of eight new houses on South Main Street.

C. Wm. Beales Postmaster: The appointment of C. William Beales, as postmaster of Gettysburg was sent to the Senate last Friday afternoon for confirmation. For some months past the question of the postmastership at this place has been one of the principal topics of interest and conversation and as the time grew near for the selection to be made developments were most keenly awaited. Early in the game there were a half a dozen or more applicants for the position but a number of these dropped out towards the last so that the selection nar-

Today's Talk

WAKE UP ALIVE!

A day usually ends in about the same way that it starts. If you start your day in good humor, with lots of zest and determination to put something through that is worth while, then you are pretty sure of finishing up better than you began.

The trouble, however, is that so many people wake up only half alive. Their bodies are drugged with tiredness and their minds with inactivity and poisoned thoughts.

It makes all the difference in the world whether you wake up alive or not. A rested body, quiet nerves and a determined spirit, plus ten minutes of exercise, mean that you who are wise enough to follow this plan are every much alive when you wake up — with all the faculties of your mind alert and ready for the fray. It always works.

Go to sleep happy and you are almost sure to wake up happy. And the man who wakes up happy is always alive — and finely equipped for whatever turns up.

How about it? Do you wake up alive? If you do not there are reasons, and the most profitable hunt that you can enter into is to find these reasons. Then correct them — and start to live.

Care for the thoughts you think, the things you eat and drink, the manner in which you use the mechanism of your body, and the world is going to be a good world in which to live — when you wake up.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Carry On"

Just Folks

JUST SUPPOSE

Just suppose that you are stricken With the illness of despair And you had begun to sicken Of the fevered breath of care, And suppose that you were lonely, Don't you think 'twould do you good

If but one real fellow only Came and cheered you where you stood?

Don't you think your skies would brighten And your shattered courage mend,

Don't you think your cares would lighten If you knew you had a friend?

Well, there's some such weary brother 'Round about you every day

Whom the fumes of failure smother As he treads his lonely way.

He is standing, sad and weary, Just as you may some day stand,

And he needs the comfort cheery Of a strong and helpful hand.

So, suppose you be the brother With encouragement to lend And make glad that lonely other Fellow, hungry for a friend?

Meeting Asks For Building: At a town meeting held in the Court House on Monday evening a resolution was adopted asking for a federal memorial building in Gettysburg. The resolution, which was of considerable length, was presented by Wm. Arch McLean and after a few changes were made, was adopted.

Hampton: Noah Beck will take charge of the toll gate at the South end of Baltimore Street on April 1st, where he will relieve you of some of your change when coming up the pike.

Short Personal Paragraphs: Misses Nan and Edna Eicholtz are in Baltimore buying the stock for their millinery store which they will open in Arendtsville

Fine New Car: A new car will be placed in service on the Littlestown division of the Hanover and McSherrystown Street Railway Company Monday or Tuesday next. The car is heated with hot water and attractively lighted by three circuits of electric lights. The car is equipped with air brake and trombone whistles. In the design of the car consideration was given to every detail for the comfort of passengers and crew. It will be the regular car on this

SIGNIFICANCE OF CLUTTERED DESKS IS TOLD

NEW YORK (AP) — The great American dream today is to have two of everything.

You aren't a success unless you have twin beds in your bedroom, at least two baths in your house, and a two-car garage.

There are probably fellows now who even dream fondly of a splendid future in which they can afford a two-wife home.

A Simpler Dream

Mine, however, is a simpler dream. All I pine for is a simple two-desk office. One desk is to work on—the other desk is simply to let things pile up on.

One desk is to please the boss. The other desk is to please me. I get this feeling particularly about this period of the year, for now is the time when across the land thousands of memo-pad Nerops and file cabinet Caligulas issue a stern edict:

"This office is getting to look like the city dump again. Everybody clean off his desk by Friday—or else."

These ten-penny tycoons never say what the "or else" means. But the implied threat is that if you don't instantly make your desk look as clean as a baptismal font you will be strung up by your thumbs, drummed out of the regiment, or ridden out of the office on a rail.

Actually, a clean desk is no true indication of either efficiency or real mental order. It is only a sign of conformity on the part of the desk's occupant. He hasn't cleared his desk for action. He has merely hidden the rubble where the boss can't see it.

Look around you in your own office. Aren't the men with the neatest desks also the most neurotic employees in the place? Don't they also include most of the hypochondriacs, the chronic false-ulcer victims, and the fear-ridden decision dodgers?

Fastidious Embezzlers

It is also a business truism that most embezzlers — and potential embezzlers — are fastidious about their desks. In their case the neat desk is the sign of a guilty mind.

On the other hand, show me a man who keeps a cluttered desk and I'll show you one of nature's noblemen—one who takes joy in his work, is gentle with his children, raises not his voice against his wife, and never, never, never kicks his dog around.

A clean desk looks fine in a kindergarten. A clean desk in an office hides more from the boss than it tells him. A smart boss is suspicious—or should be — of an employee who spends too much time polishing apples, his desk or his fingernails.

Says 4-Year-Old Girl Too Smart For Foster Parents

OLD BRIDGE, N.J. (AP) — A brilliant 4-year-old girl today faced the possible loss of the only home she has ever known because the state says she is too intelligent for her foster parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Combs said they'll go to court Tuesday in a fight to keep Alice Marie, who has been called a near-genius.

The state says the couple is more interested in watching television than in reading books.

Combs denied the state's contention that he and his wife can't give Alice the "opportunities for intellectual and cultural development" she deserves.

Has I.Q. Of 138

The State Board of Child Welfare placed the girl with Combs when she was an infant. Then it became aware of her precocious development. She was reciting nursery rhymes and carrying on adult conversations when she was 2.

The board said Alice had an I.Q. of 138, which is 12 points below genius rating. The board also said she had "a capacity of potential far greater than her present performances."

The board filed custody papers to take the child from the Combses and find other foster parents who, the board says, should be financially and intellectually better.

VETO BY IKE IS ASSAILED

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—President Eisenhower and his administration came under fire Monday as the 26th North American Wildlife & Natural Resources Conference opened.

About 1,000 conservation champions and outdoors lovers heard Dr. Ira J. Gabrielson, president of the Wildlife Management Institute, open the three-day meeting.

Gabrielson traced the presidential veto of the Water Pollution Act, calling for aid in cleaning up the nation's waters, to opposition by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and National Assn. of Manufacturers.

"Apparently, their influence is more potent with the administration than that of the millions of Americans who must continue to tolerate polluted water because of a penny-wise, pound-foolish budget economy," Gabrielson charged.

Conservationists, on the other hand, were heartened by the administration's proposal to augment land in the conservation reserve of the soil bank, he said.

E. A. STANFORD DIES MONDAY

AMBLER, Pa. (AP) — Funeral services for Edward A. Stanford, first chairman of the State Milk Control Commission, will be held Thursday.

Stanford, who was named by former Gov. Pinchot to the Commission post in 1934, died Monday at his home. He was 77.

The agriculture specialist had been a field representative for the U. S. Agriculture Department's Plant Industry Division. He also had served as superintendent of the Pond Cove Farms, S. Portland Maine; Glimmer Glen Farm, Cooperstown, N. Y. and Erdheim Farms in Philadelphia.

Stanford was secretary of the American Cheviot Sheep Society and served on the Executive Committee of the Montgomery County Extension Service.

He is survived by his widow and four children.

PRINCESS' HUSBY-TO-BE HAS BIRTHDAY

LONDON (AP) — Antony Armstrong-Jones, the man Princess Margaret is to marry, Monday began the most momentous year of his life.

This is his 30th birthday — the first he ever has spent in a royal palace and probably the last he will spend as a commoner.

"A year to look forward to with a great deal more going on than before," predicted one newspaper astrologer today. "Love interests become steadier and more satisfying."

By next March 7, the chances are that Antony Charles Robert Armstrong-Jones will have a title and a stately home of his own. Probably he will be created a marquess.

For unless the former society photographer is elevated to the peerage, the children of his marriage to Princess Margaret would be plain "mister" and "miss."

That, say court informants, would be almost unthinkable.

With the title of marquess there is always a secondary title—usually an earldom—which is used by his eldest son. His other children have the title "lord" and "lady."

Handsome Armstrong-Jones began his year of destiny Monday at the royal lodge at Windsor, where he had spent the weekend with his fiancée and Queen Mother Elizabeth.

Margaret's birthday gift was a royal secret. One London paper suggested she might present her future husband with a $6,000 Jaguar.

Wedding

Miss Alice Talbott Neal, Waynesboro, daughter of Mrs. Ira A. Nushaum, Westminster, Md., and the late Edwin W. Talbott, and Martin David Seymour Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin D. Seymour Sr., Bonneauville, were married February 27 at 11 a.m. in St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Waynesboro. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Kealy who also officiated at the Nuptial Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Ira A. Nushaum. Mrs. Paul W. Beard, Westminster, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. The Misses Ethel Seymore, Bonneauville, sister of the groom, and Carolyn Biesecker, Waynesboro, were the bridesmaids. Charles S. Seymore, Bonneauville, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Richard Eckenrode, Littlestown, and Paul W. Beard, Westminster.

A reception was held in the social hall of the church following the Mass. They are residing at 511 S. Potomac Ave., Waynesboro.

Billy Graham Rejects Challenge

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Billy Graham has turned down a Moslem religious leader's challenge for a faith healing contest to test the powers of the Christian and Islamic beliefs.

"Christ was once challenged by Satan to perform a spectacular feat in order to prove his deity," Graham told an interviewer. "He answered by saying, 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.'"

Sheik Mudarak Ahmad, chief of the East African Moslem mission of Ahmadiyya, proposed Friday that 30 incurables be selected, that Graham and six of his followers pray over 15 and the sheik and six of his followers would pray over the rest.

The result, the sheik asserted, would show "who is blessed with the Lord's grace and mercy and upon whom His door remains closed."

BLAST FLASH WILL TRIGGER NEW SYSTEM

WASHINGTON (AP) — The blinding flash of light that flares from a nuclear blast will be the only trigger for an automatic bomb alarm system being installed throughout the United States.

The first alarm stations will be operating in two or three weeks, it was disclosed during the week-end. The national system will be completed in a few months.

In the momentary interval between any nuclear bomb burst and the pulverizing blow of the following shock wave, the system will let the nation's high command know which areas have been hit.

Nuclear Hits Only

The automatic relay will report only nuclear hits. It will not give advance warning of an attack.

The first of more than 100 "sensor" stations already are being installed by the Air Force. The stations will be linked by wire communications to six major centers.

Information from the system will feed into centers at the White House, the Joint Chiefs of Staff war room in the Pentagon, the alternate command center buried underground near Ft. Ritchie, Md., the Air Force command post in the Pentagon, the Strategic Air Command headquarters at Offutt Air Force Base, Omaha, and headquarters of the North American Air Defense Command at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Details Are Disclosed

Brig. Gen. J. B. Bestic, deputy for Air Force communications and electronics, disclosed details of the "atomic strike recording system" in testimony to a House Military Appropriations subcommittee. A transcript was made public Sunday night.

Bestic said it will cost about two million dollars yearly to operate the network. Communications wires will be leased from Western Union. Work on the system started last May.

The chief value of the system will be to tell the Strategic Air Command instantly which of its bombers and missiles are destroyed if an attack should come, and which bases are untouched.

MOTHS LIKE PART WOOL, TOO

If a garment to be stored has only a small part of wool in it, the treatment in storing must be the same as with an all wool garment. Moth larvae will get to the wool content and can badly damage the fabric in doing so.

Late Mule Scoring Spree Sinks Bullets 101-75 In Final Game; Frosh Halted

Gettysburg College cagers rang down the curtain on their most successful season in six years on a sour note as they received a 101-75 lacing at the hands of Muhlenberg Monday evening before a small crowd of 500 fans in Allentown.

Muhlenberg avenged an earlier drubbing at which time the Bullets passed the century mark. Gettysburg posted a 15-11 record for the year, the best since the 1953-54 year when they were 14-8 under "Hen" Bream. The last time the Bullets won 15 or more games was in 1950-51.

The game contained many individual as well as team highlights. Ron Warner, Bullet sophomore scoring ace from York, ripped the cords for 38 points, the second time this season he has hit the mark. He closed out the year scoring an even 600 points, 70 better than the record set several seasons ago by Bill Snyder. It has also been three years since an opponent has racked up 100 points or more against Gettysburg. Muhlenberg's Don Robbins collected 13 rebounds to bring his total over the 300 mark, one of the highest in Mule history.

Mules Race Away

The turning point in Monday's encounter came in the second half after Gettysburg knotted the count at 65-65 with 9:20 minutes remaining. During the next eight minutes Muhlenberg rammed through 28 points to the Bullets' two. Ron Warner dunked a jump shot at the 4:35 mark. Joel Sarnar and Dick Sekunda carried the Mules to victory during the eight-minute scoring spree.

With 1:59 left Ron Warner broke the ice with three consecutive two-pointers while George Burnett followed with a pair of fouls. Sekunda landed a lay-up as Joe Berghold pushed the Mules over the 100 mark on a corner push shot.

Gettysburg jumped to a quick 21-14 lead during the first ten minutes of play. Following a time out, Ron Druckenmiller landed a foul while Bob Parker tossed in a corner jump. Druckenmiller then capitalized on a three-point play, George Gillilan added a jump and Crist Hiotis hit on a hook. Gettysburg led by a slim 23-22 margin.

Lead At Half

Bill Fitzkee and Druckenmiller rimmed lay-ups before another timeout was called. When play resumed Parker connected on a jump and Hensing and Ron Warner added charity tosses to push the Bullets ahead 29-24. Warner and Hiotis then matched each other for six straight points while Gillilan landed a pair of jumps and Sarnar gave the home team their first lead on a lay-up. With the score 36-35 in favor of the Mules, Bruce Simpson uncorked a corner push at the 4:00 minute point. Gillilan and Druckenmiller came back with two more goals but Fitzkee and Parker repeated the performance. Hiotis and Parker matched jump shots to close the first half. At intermission Gettysburg led 43-42.

The Bullets opened the second 20 minutes on Hensing's corner jump and six more points by Warner while Sekunda managed a lay-up. Gettysburg now led 51-44, but Muhlenberg began to move. Then came the Bullets' scoring collapse and the Mules had the victory.

Bob Parker finished second on the Bullet scoring list with 14 counters while Bill Fitzkee landed 12. Joel Sarnar sparked the Mules' offense.

MOORE TO GET NEW CONTRACT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—LaSalle College today called a news conference presumably to announce a new contract for basketball coach Duddy Moore.

Moore came to LaSalle in March 1958 after 10 years as head coach of Duquesne University. He was signed to a three-year contract succeeding Jim Pollard, now head coach of the Minneapolis Lakers of the National Basketball Assn.

Moore, 48, played basketball for Duquesne in his native Pittsburgh. After graduating in 1934, he had played and coached the Pittsburgh Pirates of the now defunct National League and also coached St. Joseph's High School of Mt. Oliver.

Between 1936 and 1942 he coached Trinity High School which is just outside Pittsburgh. For the next six years he was head coach at Sharon, Pa., High School.

In 1948 Moore was named head coach at Duquesne. During his 10 years at Duquesne his teams compiled a 191-70 record and he didn't have a losing season until 1957-58 (10-12). Duquesne was beginning to cut athletic scholarships and insiders said that was one reason Moore left.

Last year Moore led LaSalle to a 16-7 record. This year his explorers finished with a 16-6 mark in the Middle Atlantic Conference, University Division.

Harass Coach For Cage Wins

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Springfield Board of Education says it may bar the public from future basketball games featuring Springfield High School, Illinois state champions last year.

The board's action Monday night stemmed from the harassment of the school's basketball coach, Ray Page, and his family. The trouble, it appears, is the result of the team's continued good showing this year.

Recently vandals broke windows in Page's home. Earlier, tires on his car had been slashed and the convertible top damaged. The family has been bothered by mysterious threatening telephone calls.

Page 38, expressed bewilderment about the vandalism and harassment. However, he said his team's record of 25 wins and 4 losses may be the cause. There are three other high schools in Springfield.

"There's always a certain amount of resentment over the team's success," Page said. He said an anonymous caller recently told him if the team won any games at the sectional tournament this week "you have only a sample of what's going to happen to you."

Lehigh handed Penn State its worst football defeat in 1889 when it licked the Nittany Lions 106-0.

CALIFORNIA OPENS BID FOR NEW TITLE

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

California and its redoubtable Bear-Hug defense opens a bid for another national basketball championship tonight as the NCAA tournament picks up with a six-game program.

The Bears of Pete Newell, back with a brilliant 24-1 record and a No. 2 national ranking, play Idaho State's Rocky Mountain Conference champs (21-4) in a first-round game in the NCAA's West regional at San Francisco.

Ohio U. faces Notre Dame and Western Kentucky clashes with Miami of Florida at Lexington, Ky., and New York U. faces Connecticut, West Virginia plays Navy, and Duke clashes with Princeton in a tripleheader in New York. Each of the six winners goes on to regional semifinals next Friday.

Firing Opened Monday

The first-round firing in the NCAA tournament began Monday night with Utah's Skyline Conference titlists whipping Southern California 80-73 in a West regional opener at Provo, Utah, and DePaul whipping Air Force 69-63 in a Midwest regional preliminary at Chicago.

A playoff game at Manhattan, Kan., Wednesday night between Big Eight co-champs Kansas and Kansas State, plus tonight's six first-round games, and the New Mexico State-Oregon game on Wednesday—completes the field of 16 for the four regional semifinals Friday and Saturday.

Those four survivors advance to the San Francisco Cow Palace for the national NCAA semifinals and finals March 18-19.

Regional Lineup

Here's the way the regionals will match up March 11:

Eastern at Charlotte, N.C.—Duke-Princeton winner vs. St. Joseph's (Pa.); West Virginia, Navy winner vs. NYU-Connecticut winner. (St. Joseph's drew first round bye.)

Midwest at Louisville—Ohio U.-Notre Dame winner vs. Georgia Tech; Western Kentucky-Miami winner vs. Ohio State; (Georgia Tech, Ohio State first round byes.)

Midwest at Manhattan, Kan.—Texas vs. Kansas-Kansas State playoff winner; DePaul vs. Cincinnati; (Texas, Cincinnati, Big Eight champ first round byes.)

2 Nontournament Games

West at Seattle—California, Idaho State winner vs. Santa Clara; Utah vs. New Mexico State-Oregon winner. (Santa Clara first round bye.)

Santa Clara (21-8) won the West Coast Athletic Conference's NCAA berth last night, beating Los Angeles Loyola 59-53 after both teams tied for the conference title with 9-3 records.

Only two important nontournament games were on the Monday schedule. Cincinnati, with Oscar Robertson scoring 25 points and Ralph Davis 27, wound up a 25-1 regular season by routing Xavier of Ohio 86-68.

Small Schools Play

St. Louis, third-seeded for the National Invitation Tournament opening Thursday in New York, pushed its record to 19-7 by downing Louisville 66-60.

In the 32-team NAIA (small school) tournament at Kansas City, eight more games today complete first-round play. The eight winners in Monday's play were Whittier (Calif.), Villa Madonna (Ky.), Savannah, Ga., New Mexico Highlands, Oklahoma Baptist, William Jewell, Grambling (La.) and Southwest Texas State.

WINS JOCKEY CROWN

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Bill Shoemaker has won the jockey crown at Santa Anita for the 10th year in succession. He had 67 winners here going into today's card.

LIPSCOMB IS UNBEATEN IN 37 MATCHES

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—"I'm a good-natured, peace-loving guy and if they ever try to make a villain out of me, I'll quit pro wrestling."

It was mustachioed Gene (Big Daddy) Lipcomb speaking. The 6-7, 297-pound tackle of the Baltimore Colts is unbeaten in 37 matches in his new off-season occupation as a mat monster.

His manager, John Swenski, says Big Daddy is wrestling about five times a week, receives 8 per cent of the net gate and could make more than $60,000 this year.

Goes Out To Win

Big Daddy was in town warming up publicity drums for his Chicago Stadium wrestling debut Saturday night. He meets Cowboy O'Toole and Rocky Lee, taking them on one after the other.

"Big D, how come you are unbeaten but have been wrestling only since Jan. 23? Are the matches rigged?"

"I've learned a lot from Don Joyce (his Colt teammate who has been a pro matman since 1956). I just go out there and do my best. All I'm told is to go out and win. When they tell me to go out there and gouge out somebody's eyes or stick my fist into somebody's teeth, I'll quit."

"Big D, are you the good guy or bad guy?"

No Gimmicks

"I don't know what you mean, except if they ever try to make me a villain, I'll quit."

"Big D, do you have any favorite holds?"

"Not especially. Guess I like the bear hug best of all."

"Big D, what do the Colts say about your wrestling?"

"They say I can continue as long as I don't get hurt."

"Big D, do you have any gimmicks, like wearing a leopard skin?"

"I haven't any gimmicks. When I get in the ring I just wear my Colt football jacket."

Says Success, Not Failure, Ruined Ball-Arnaz Match

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Few marriages were more famous than Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz. Hollywood union seemed so perfect.

Millions laughed every Monday night at the exploits of the Ricardos, who seemed in every way like Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz. Didn't Desi play a Cuban band leader, which he was? Didn't Lucille seem utterly convincing as a kind-hearted but conniving wife?

As if the parallel weren't close enough, the climax of their double lives came on Dec. 8, 1952. A son was born to the Arnazes on the same day that the Ricardos welcomed a son on the "I Love Lucy" show across the nation.

Pair Seemed Secure

Lucille and Desi seemed secure in their own Hollywood lives. Though she had the greatest success as a star, he earned his own name as head of a TV film empire. They seemed perfectly matched.

But nothing is perfect, especially marriage in Hollywood. It is ironic that the Ball-Arnaz marriage managed to survive all kinds of failures but couldn't stand success.

When they married in 1940, his prospects were not bright. He was a bongo player who drew minor notice in a Broadway musical, "Too Many Girls." They met while making the film version, in which she starred. When she went on an all-star train tour to promote war bonds, he wasn't even invited to go along.

"A Nervous Wreck"

She divorced him in 1944, testi-lying their arguments made her "a nervous wreck." After a few months, they made up. She never collected the final papers.

But their arguments continued after he got out of the Army. Her film career prospered while his was nil. He organized a band to keep busy, and she objected to his constant absences.

Lucille's own career in films began to decline, but in 1951, their luck changed. The child they had long wanted was born to them—little Lucie. And the pair embarked on the "I Love Lucy" series against the doubts of TV bigwigs.

Promoted Serenity

The smashing success of the show seemed to bring a serenity to their marriage. For seven years they acted out the weekly charade of the Ricardos. The public's identification of them in the TV roles clouded their real natures.

Lucy Ricardo is erratic, extravagant, always cooking up wild schemes. Lucille Ball is steady, conservative, slow to accept change.

Ricky Ricardo is level-headed, a steady force on his harebrained wife. Desi Arnaz has shown a talent for business, but can be impulsive and pleasure-loving.

"I Love Lucy" will continue to be played and replayed on the nation's TV screens. But it won't seem the same.

Court Slashes Hedy's Support

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Actress Hedy Lamarr failed to show up in court Monday for the third time and Domestic Relations Judge Ben Woodall slashed the monthly support her husband pays her from $3,000 to $250.

Miss Lamarr's attorney, Jack Okin of Newark, N.J., said she "is finding this divorce action an extremely emotional experience. She is afraid to come here because she hasn't made up her mind as to what she could say."

The actress is divorcing oilman W. Howard Lee. Three pre-trial hearings have been scheduled and she failed to show up for any of them. Trial has been set for the week of April 18.

COUNCIL WILL

plies in and out of their sores, we're not enforcing the ordinance against double parking as it should be enforced. I am asking council to take a position so we can solve this problem which has been hanging on for years."

Councilman George Naugle remarked: "We're working on a new plan of a $10 fee per year for the store trucks which would permit them to park anywhere in parking spaces in order to load and unload. Right now we're working on the legality of it and the question of whether a decal could be put on the trucks to show that the fee had been paid."

The burgess also asked council to make decision on whether it wants to open South St. from S. Washington St. to Long Lane and to make a decision on the width of Long Lane and the street that will connect Long Lane with Steinhilber Ave. along the government land.

Burgess Plank said, "We have requests for permits to build along the alley between Washington and Long Lane at South St. and the Colt Park Development Co. is willing to give us the land to make Long Lane 50 feet wide if we want it now."

The burgess said he has not signed the ordinance passed by council September 8, 1959, ordaining Long Lane because "I think that we should ordain it to a 50-foot width since we can get the land and because the ordinance has not gone to the Planning Commission for recommendation."

Winebrenner's Views

Borough Engineer Leroy Winebrenner opposed a 50-foot width for Long Lane, because it would have a sidewalk only on one side and would be wider than Steinhilber Ave. He also opposed a 50-foot width for the street between Long Lane and Steinhilber Ave. because "if we made it that wide we'd have to buy ten feet off Earl Waybright and the going price for land along Steinhilber Ave. is now $450 per front foot. That means it would cost us $4,500 to $5,000 to buy the additional land there, and we'd have to buy ten feet off two lots that I've already staked out along the proposed street."

Complaint was received on the condition of the alley north of York St. at the Furniture factory. The borough engineer said all alleys are constructed so that drainage is down the center of the alley "because that's the only way you can handle the water. You have no curbs to run the water along." When some councilmen said that the factories could be required to drain away springs that flow from its property into the alley, other councilmen asked where the springs could drain and said similar conditions exist elsewhere in town. They also noted that much of the alley is on factory land. "If we push too hard they might recall that the alley is ten feet on their land and put up a fence," according to Councilman Jones.

borough workmen had removed the snow from Baltimore St. The burgess was asked to seek to work out arrangements whereby the snow would be shoveled from those sidewalks prior to the arrival of the snowplow so all the snow could be removed at one time "thus cutting down the cost."

The borough engineer presented a lengthy explanation of the recent "clean up" conducted by the borough workmen, stating that the explanation was in reply to an unsigned letter in The Gettysburg Times condemning the borough for cleaning debris so early in the season.

Winebrenner said: "Because of the weather there was no other work the borough employees could do. It was a chance to clean up Christmas trees, ashes and other debris that had accumulated. We would have had to pay the workmen anyway and here was a chance to get rid of a lot of accumulated trash before the regular spring cleanup. With it out of the way we could get the regular cleanup done that much faster. It was a saving to the borough and I don't think the writer of that letter, who was afraid to sign his name, is a taxpayer. He complained about our not taking cans and bottles. We were using the borough dump for the trees and ashes and that's the only thing the state board of health will let us put there."

Sit-ins Spread

A group of students from the all-Negro university staged their first sit-in Friday at a lunch counter in a supermarket. The sit-ins spread to a drug store Saturday and a third store Monday. All were peaceful.

Houston schools have 170,000 students. About 50,000 are Negroes.

An integration suit is pending before U.S. Dist. Judge Ben Connally but he has given no indication when he would hand down a decision.

The sit-ins were in stores near the university on the opposite side of town from where Turner was beaten.

Turner, who has a 3-month-old son, is not a student at the university.

A doctor at the hospital said Turner suffered one bad cut on his head, and bruises and minor cuts on the lips, right shoulder and across the chest. These were in addition to the Ks on his chest and stomach.

No Road Deaths In State Over Weekend; Is Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pennsylvania passed the weekend without a fatal highway accident. So far as is known, this has never happened before.

There were four accidental deaths; from a fall, a fire, carbon monoxide poisoning and strangulation.

The total matched the unofficial record low for a 54-hour weekend period, 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Four died on April 4-5 last year, two of them on the highways, the old record low for that category.

The absence of highway deaths was despite hazardous driving conditions created by last week's heavy snow.

In addition, skiing conditions were at their best and lodges had prepared for a heavy turnout in the Poconos and elsewhere.

Snow Alerts Drivers

One explanation offered for the safe driving: the mantle of snow throughout the state kept drivers alert and mindful of potential danger.

The weekend victims: Pittsburgh—Raymond Whitlock, about 50, killed Saturday when he fell and struck his head while waxing floors in the Salvation Army's Evangeline Residence.

Philadelphia—George W. Christmas, 75, burned to death Sunday in a fire at his apartment house.

Pottstown—Earl Stong, 72, died of carbon monoxide poisoning Sunday in his garage when a door blew shut after he started his car.

Lancaster—Larry Heister, 13, of Refton, strangled Sunday when a handkerchief he was wearing around his neck cowboy style had caught on a door handle. He apparently tripped while playing in his grandparents' home.

Jack Riley, coach of the Olympic champion U. S. hockey team, has coached hockey at West Point for 10 years.

NEGROES IN N. CAROLINA CLAIM GAINS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Negro demonstrators claimed a victory in North Carolina today as the growing anti-segregation campaign entered its sixth week and spread into the eighth Southern state.

Students in two North Carolina cities seeking equal eating facilities at traditionally segregated lunch counters were served while seated Monday. Apparently it was the first time this had happened in the state where the current wave of sit-downs started.

The first demonstration in West Virginia took a new form: Students paraded at a motion picture theater protesting segregated seating arrangements.

11 Va. Arrests

In Houston, Tex., the sit-downs spread from drug stores to a supermarket lunch counter. Service was refused and the counter area roped off. No trouble was reported.

Eleven Negroes were arrested for trespassing in Petersburg, Va., after they occupied a section reserved for white persons in the city library and refused to leave.

At Winston-Salem, N.C., 75 placard-carrying students staged a two-hour demonstration climaxed by singing and a brief prayer service in front of City Hall. Police warned a repetition would result in arrests on charges of staging a parade without a permit.

Served Without Incident

After the demonstration some of the participants were served hot dogs and soft drinks while sitting in a combination hardware and variety store.

Later, however, a store spokesman announced plans to remove the soda fountain stools. He said in the future white persons and Negroes would be served only while standing.

At Salisbury, N.C., six Negro students from Livingstone College were served in pairs at three downtown drug store lunch coun-

Nixon's Mother Has Birthday Monday

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP) — A color portrait of the Richard M. Nixon family was among birthday gifts received by Mrs. Hannah Nixon.

The vice president's mother, observing her 75th birthday Monday, also received telephoned congratulations from him and from another son, Navy Lt. Edward Nixon, who is stationed in Florida.

Later she was honored at a party in the Whittier home of her third son, F. Donald Nixon. Mrs. Nixon lives in nearby La Habra.

GIRL CAGERS TOP BOYS' TEAM

SALTSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Who said basketball is a man's game? At Saltsburg High School the girls' team posted a 10-0 record this season while the boys lost all 23 of their games.

This year was no fluke. The girls have a 38-1 record for the past three years. The boys have 9-39.

Hard work at practice and definite training rules are the secret says Mrs. Mary Lee Cunningham, coach of the girls at the western Pennsylvania school.

Roy Lytle, the boys' coach, says his team continues to lose because of "lack of interest, lack of experience or no standout players."

But despite the difference in records, the girls do not look down on their basketball inferiors.

As Mrs. Cunningham puts it: "The boys are the girls' most ardent fans and the girls really root for the boys."

There were no incidents. Four other students were refused service in two other drug stores.

The anti-segregation demonstrations began at Greensboro, N.C., Feb. 1. Since then they have spread to South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia. Symptom demonstrations have occurred in a number of northern localities.

FINE BLIND BOOKIE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Blind bookie Frank Spagnolo, 38, who kept track of telephone bets in braille, was fined $100 Monday for violation of federal wagering tax laws.

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar made a triumphant return to his NBC television show Monday night. Within an hour the tart-tongued comedian had talked himself into censorship again.

On Feb. 11, Paar walked off the show after the network had cut almost five minutes out of a taped broadcast without notifying him. The matter eliminated was a joke which NBC said was in bad taste. Shortly thereafter, Paar and NBC officials made peace.

Two network vice presidents were on hand Monday night and conferred with Paar immediately after the show was taped. An hour later, the network announced Paar had "agreed to the omission of a brief personal reference."

Attacks Press

When the tape was broadcast, it was evident shortly after midnight that the brief personal reference was a 10-word reference to columnist Walter Winchell made during a vitriolic attack on the press, and the Hearst newspapers in particular.

Hundreds of Paar fans turned up at NBC to welcome back their hero.

Some wore "Welcome Back Jack" buttons and carried placards. Paar himself seemed touched and pleased, and explained his walkout as a "tantrum" and "childish."

"But I will still raise more hell than I did last time," he said.
